Group 3: Project Proposal

Our group wishes to understand the external factors related to political party affiilation, and to understand how well we can predict political party affiliation by using a combination of the modeling techniques learned in class.